

Project Flamingo is a South African NGO working to provide timely, compassionate and holistic care to breast cancer patients in the Public Health Sector. We are looking for a passionate and motivated Stellenbosch University medical student to join our Flaminglets Student Initiative team as a coordinator and volunteer at Tygerberg Hospital in Cape Town. This is an excellent opportunity to gain hands-on experience, make a significant impact on patient care, and work alongside experienced medical professionals.

Role: Medical Student Coordinator

Location: Tygerberg Hospital, Francie Van Zijl Avenue, Cape Town, 7505

Duration: One year (January 2025 – December 2025)

Hours: One Friday & Saturday every second month (on average, dependent on surgery calendar)

Role type: Volunteer

Key Responsibilities

Student & Community Engagement Duties

- Be the central contact person for all Project Flamingo-related student queries
- Coordinate the student Whatsapp community (internal and external)
- Help plan and coordinate Future Changemakers Webinar Series with COO
- Participate in health education and awareness campaigns.

Patient Care Support (at Tygerberg Hospital):

- Assist in pre-operative patient visits with the patient support team on one Friday per month.
- Coordinate the logistics of patient gifting with the COO of Project Flamingo

Surgical Assistance (at Tygerberg Hospital):

- Coordinate student volunteer sign-ups for surgery list days once per month.
